Blackstone Valley Art Association

Number Three

January 1989

MEETING

The first meeting of the New Year will be held on Monday January 16, at the Grange Hall on Blackstone Street in Uxbridge. President Darlene Carey will call the meeting to order promptly at 7:30 P.M., with a demonstration by Dale Anne Ratcliff to follow at 8:00 P.M. We hope everyone has a busy and prosperous New Year with a lot of time to paint.

PLEASE LEAVE THE PARKING SPACE NEAREST THE DOOR FOR THE DEMONSTRATOR

DEMONSTRATOR, DALE ANNE RATCLIFF

Dale Anne Ratcliff was born in Medford, Massachusetts, and graduated with a degree in Art Education from the University of Maine. She studied with Martin Ahearn, Howard Curtis, and others. Exhibited in one-man group shows throughout New England. Exhibited also at Academic Artists Association and American Artists Professional League Shows. She is a member of the Rockport Art Association, North Shore Arts Association, Newburyport Art Association, and the Guild of Beverly Artists. Best known for her marines, animal portraits, done in oils, pastel, acrylics and watercolor. She has also won several awards. Has her home and studio in Lanesville. Dale Anne will paint a picture in oils.

FISCAL FOOTNOTE

Members are reminded that dues for the 1988-89 year are payable now and will be accepted at the January meeting or can be sent to William Heffernan, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Please fill out the enclosed form. Dues must be paid by January to have your work accepted for the Spring Show to be held in April. If you are not current after the January meeting the BVAA has no choice but to remove your name from its mailing list and to declare you ineligible to exhibit in the annual spring show. So please pay your dues promptly.

THE WEATHER

If snow, ice, wind or cold are severe enough to force schools in your area to be cancelled for the day, then you can expect any BVAA meeting planned for the same evening, to be cancelled also. If you are uncertain, announcements of the cancellation are normally broadcast over three local radio stations; WMRC in Milford, WTAG in Worcester, and WWON or WNRI in Woonsocket.

OF NEWS

Our Spring Arts Festival will be held at the Blackstone-Millville Regional Junior-Senior High School again this year. Dates are Sunday, April 16 through Friday, April 21. More news on this later.

The January demonstration is paid for in part by the Massachusetts Arts Lottery as administered by the Northbridge Arts Council.
