

MEETING

The next meeting of the BVAA will be held on March 16, 1992 at the Uxbridge Grange Hall on Blackstone St., in Uxbridge. President Richard Senter will call the meeting to order promptly at 7:30 p.m.,

CRITIQUE

Instead of a demonstration, this meeting will feature a member's critique. You are invited to bring two recent works (finished or unfinished) for constructive criticism by your fellow artists. Many a fresh eye can see solutions to problems you may be having with color, composition, drawing, value or handling of medium. So don't be shy, bring in your paintings or drawings. We can all benefit from the exchange of ideas and suggestions.

There will also be three watercolor videos by Tony Couch, Ron Ranson and Irving Shapiro that members can rent for $10 each. All money goes to the BVAA naturally.

OFFICERS

We are in need of new officers for next year, as several of the present office holders are planning to retire. In the past we have been fortunate to have someone come forward when an office became vacant. Please consider offering your services now, so we will have a slate of candidates ready for election at the May meeting. We need a President, Secretary, Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer. If we can not fill these offices, the BVAA will be forced to disband. Without officers, we cannot function. Please do your share by calling Richard Senter at [REDACTED] before the March meeting.
